The weekend

The children have settled in well. Saturday was a day of shopping with many families bumping into each other in the shopping centre. There were various gatherings of small groups of host families later in the afternoon for coffee and play to help the children settle. Sunday saw more shopping and a get-together at our local country park (pics below) Some other notable activities over the weekend were a sponsored walk over the Forth Road Bridge (pic below), large family meals and much bouncing on trampolines. Tomorrow sees the start of our activity programme and we have lots of exciting things planned for the children over the next 4 weeks.
