

FOCC WEST LOTHIAN ~~DAILY~~ Weekend BLOG 2013

Saturday 8th & Sunday 9th June

Dasha (Harper)

We went to the Kirkliston Gala Day where Dasha did rock climbing and rode on a Bucking Bronco! We then went on to a BBQ at a friends house. He has a fantastic garden with loads of children's play stuff.

Veronika

We took our dog to Cramond Beach for a walk and picnic and then off to Craigies Farm for family fun! Sunday afternoon was spent at Jupiter Artland where we met up with the Johnstons and Dasha.

Sasha

Sasha with Queen Olivia and others after the Kirking of the Gala Queen service at Torphichen Kirk on Sunday.

Luba

Farmer Luba concentrates on driving her tractor at active kids Perth on Saturday

Lera

Luba & Lera with Florence Cotton having fun on the claiming frame and blowing bubbles on Sunday

Tanya

Our garden party with tanya and chloe my niece.

Palina and Vicka

Palina and Vicka (and Katharine) had a lovely time at Blair Drummond. We had a beautiful day for it.

Palina lost a baby tooth late Saturday evening. Bed was somewhat delayed as she wasn't keen on leaving the bathroom until she'd managed to coax her tooth out. The tooth fairy visited overnight!

On Sunday, Palina and Katharine played at Eliburn park and after some errands we had tea at Pizza

Express.

Andrei

Taking advantage of the good weather we took Andrei to Blair Drummond Safari Park on Saturday. He enjoyed the sealions show, driving dodgems, playing on the slides and seeing the tigers and lions. It was very warm so an ice lolly was much needed.

On Sunday we went to Almondell Park with some of the other families, another lovely day with time spent on tarzan swings, sheltering from the sun and playing with water pistols.

Dima

On Saturday we went to Cramond Beach for ice cream and a walk with Harry the dog. Then on to my cousin's for a Chinese at night. Dima really enjoyed the Chinese food!
